

John and Muriel Arnason Award

Nomination Criteria

Created in 2009, the John and Muriel Arnason Award is awarded to a couple for outstanding volunteerism in the Township of Langley. Created to honour the memory of Muriel and John Arnason, the award recognizes people who volunteer together to make Langley a better place.

The award recognizes a partnership of individuals who:

- are advocates of culture, learning, and literacy
- are sensitive to the economic needs, abilities, and specific needs of Langley residents
- foster partnerships and cooperative efforts
- create the potential for long-term benefit to the Langley community

Eligibility

Individuals must:

- be related or connected in some way*
- reside in the Township of Langley
- serve together to make the Township of Langley a better place through charitable, philanthropic, or other means

*The recipients must either have a family connection (married, common-law, parent and child) or be a team of two people who are non-related but are colleagues or friends who have partnered together for a common goal.

Submission Requirements

- Complete the Nomination Form
- Attach documents detailing the nominees' background, experience, and achievements
- Include a minimum of two supporting letters from benefiting persons, newspaper clippings, and any other pertinent information
- Attach or email a recent high quality photo of the nominees (together):
 - » head shot
 - » jpg format (300dpi or 2-4mb)
- Attach or email any high quality photos of the nominees completing volunteer work:
 - » jpg format (300dpi or 2-4mb)
- Photos provided may be used in newspapers, websites, and Township of Langley publications

Additional Notes

- The quality of your submission greatly assists the selection committee
- Please print clearly
- The selection committee will contact:
 - » the nominees to verify the application content
 - » the nominator for further input as required
- Although only one submission is selected as the award recipient, the Township believes all nominees make an important contribution to the community and, therefore, all nominees will be awarded a recognition plaque at the awards event

- A monetary award will be presented to a recognized charity or society chosen by the award winner
- Applications cannot be accepted in consecutive years. Once a candidate has been nominated, there needs to be a significant change in the body of work or a substantial period of time in order to be nominated again
- Nominees and award recipients are requested to attend the Township of Langley's annual Volunteer Appreciation and Awards Evening on Thursday, April 5, 2018, to receive their plaque or award

Nomination deadline: Friday, February 9, 2018

Please note that late or incomplete applications will not be accepted.
