Summer Festival Series: Call for Performers

Langley, BC – The Township of Langley is seeking performers of all genres for the 2022 Summer Festival Series, held Thursday evenings throughout July and August at the Willoughby Community Park Amphitheatre. The Township is looking for performances ranging from 15-minute sets to fully staged productions of up to two hours long. All acts must be family-friendly.

Performers of all ages are encouraged to find out how to apply at tol.ca/summerfestivalseries. The deadline for applications is Thursday, March 31 at 11:59pm.

“We are cautiously planning an in-person Summer Festival Series for 2022 after being unable to host performances in 2020 and 2021 due to Public Health Orders,” said Township of Langley Cultural Services Manager Annelisa Pedersen. “While public health measures continue to evolve, we are hopeful we can welcome the community to the Willoughby Community Park Amphitheatre for live performances this summer.”

Performer applications will be evaluated by a jury panel that will consider talent, suitability for all ages, Langley fan base, past performance experience, and more.

Additional information is available at tol.ca/summerfestivalseries.
